

30 August 1951

WORK ASSIGNMENTS PANEL "B"

1. The Panel is to be divided into three groups as follows:

Group I. Inventory of cold war weapons (Inventory)

25X1A9a [REDACTED] 25X1A5a2

Group II. Hostile psychological operations and vulnerabilities (Intelligence)

25X1A5a2 [REDACTED] - Staff Supervision)

25X1A9a [REDACTED]

Group III. Comparison of NSC and other policy papers with psychological operations plans (Analysis)

25X1A5a2

(Col. [REDACTED] Staff Supervision)
S/P [REDACTED]
Mr. [REDACTED]
Mr. [REDACTED]
Dr. [REDACTED]
Mr. [REDACTED]

2. Tasks to get started:

Group I. (Inventory)

- a. Prepare a list of means.
- b. Prepare a list of department contacts for expansion and verification of the list. Identify the policy planning office for each department.
- c. Prepare a descriptive or analytical statement of operationally feasible means of employing them, or filling gaps in their employment.

Group II. (Intelligence)

- a. Furnish the Panel with copies and status of the papers in being.
- b. Draft a statement of how intelligence resources can be brought to bear on the questions uncovered in the analysis and inventory tasks.
- c. Establish intelligence contacts for the members of the Panel working on the analysis and inventory tasks; examine the questions and proposals uncovered by Group III.

Group III. (Analysis)

- a. Draw up a list of NSC papers in order of planning priority.
- b. Compare each psychological plan with the relevant NSC and policy paper; list questions and gaps.
- c. Examine each NSC paper to list relevant questions known to the operators and operational planners.
- d. Draw up a list of operators and planners.
- e. Consolidate the questions requiring intelligence aid.